Who We Are

The Wyandot County Young Professionals (WCYP) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) charitable organization started in 2013. The group holds regular monthly meeting, takes part in community service projects, and plans and facilitates fundraising activities for various local charitable causes.

WCYP members come from a variety of backgrounds and areas of employment. Group membership is open to individuals that are 18 - 45 years old and who live or work in Wyandot County, or graduated from a Wyandot County school district. Annual dues are $25.00.

Monthly WCYP meetings are held at various establishments throughout Wyandot County. These meetings provide a forum to conduct necessary business as well as planning sessions. The WCYP prides itself on being as casual as possible while striving to maintain focus and accomplish its mission.

WCYP Mission

To develop, connect, empower and retain young professionals through increased opportunities and resources that will enhance their professional development and business success within the region.

What We Do

The WCYP is a network of young professionals that develop themselves through mutual learning opportunities, community service projects, and knowledge shared by current and past community leaders. WCYP works to develop necessary competencies in potential future business and community leaders, and strives to attract and retain young educated talent for the purpose of improving the economic viability and quality of life in Wyandot County.
